UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK
In re LEHMAN BROTHERS Inc., Debtor
Case No. 08-01420 (JMP) SIPA
The Honorable James M. Peck
One Bowling Green,
New York, NY 10004,
Courtroom 601

Dear Mr. Peck:

I've received the notice of hearing on Trustee's Fifteenth Omnibus Claims Objection to Proofs of Claim (Amended and Superseded Claims) where my claim number 9005644 filed on 1/30/2009 is labeled with 'unspecified' total amount claimed and with basis for objection & reason for proposed disallowance stating "the claim is amended and superseded by surviving claim 3147".

I have reached to Epiq Bankruptcy Solutions at (866) 841-7868 in order to find out more details about the basis for objection and specifically surviving claim 3147, however I have not received call back with more information. Therefore I'm submitting this written response to the Objection to make sure that this case does not get disallowed if I do not respond by the deadline provided with this notice.

I am attaching two SIPC documents which were submitted initially listing amounts of $16,153.85 and $41,538.46, totaling $57,692.31. I am also attaching the letter from September 9th 2008 specifying conditions of separation of employment stating promise by Lehman Brothers of 2 months 'notice period' with full continuation of base salary and benefits, and promise of severance pay of 16 weeks and two weeks of unused vacation pay. Severance pay would extend from end of notice period 8th of November 2008 till March 14th 2009 as stated in this document or until I become employed by another firm, after which I would receive a lump sum payment representing the remainder of the payments. I am attaching also the letter from Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc. on September 30th 2008 where I am informed that promised salary payments will no longer be provided on October 3, 2008 or thereafter. So considering last payment was made on 09/20/2008 (attached) Lehman Brothers effectively did not pay base salary and benefits for 5 months and 3 weeks (until promised March 14th 2009). Considering base salary at $120,000 this would be in simple math $57,500.00.

Considering hardship this bankruptcy has caused to my family at that time I would appreciate consideration and positive determination of this matter and we are looking forward to receive promised payments on behalf of Lehman Brothers soon.

Sincerely,

Zarko Cvetanovic

CVETANOVIC, ZARKO 53 HIGHFIELD RD BLOOMFIELD, NJ 07003	9005644	1/30/2009	UNSPECIFIED	The claim is amended and superseded by surviving claim 3147.

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that, on January 4, 2013, James W. Giddens, as Trustee (the "Trustee") for the liquidation of the business of Lehman Brothers Inc. ("Debtor" or "LBI") filed his Fifteenth Omnibus Objection to Proofs of Claim (Amended and Superseded Claims) (the "Objection") with the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the "Bankruptcy Court"). The category of claim objection applicable to you is identified in the table above in the column entitled "Basis for Objection & Reason for Proposed Disallowance."

The Objection requests that the Bankruptcy Court expunge, reduce, reclassify, and/or disallow one or more of your claims listed above under CLAIM(S) TO BE DISALLOWED & EXPUNGED on the ground that the claim is amended and superseded by the surviving claim noted above (the "Surviving Claim"). Any claim that the Bankruptcy Court expunges and disallows will be treated as if it had not been filed and you will not be entitled to any distribution on account thereof. Please note that where different documentation was filed with the Amended and Superseded Claim and the Surviving Claim, the Trustee will treat all documentation filed with both claims as having been filed in support of the Surviving Claim.

No determination has been made with respect to the Surviving Claim at this time. The Surviving Claim will remain on the General Creditor Claims Register subject to further analysis and objection by the Trustee on any basis.

If you do NOT oppose the disallowance, expungement, reduction or reclassification of your claim(s) listed above under CLAIM(S) TO BE DISALLOWED & EXPUNGED, then you do NOT need to file a written response to the Objection and you do NOT need to appear at the hearing.

If you DO oppose the disallowance, expungement, reduction or reclassification of your claim(s) listed above under CLAIM(S) TO BE DISALLOWED & EXPUNGED, then you MUST file with the Court and serve on the parties listed below a written response to the Objection that is received on or before 4:00 p.m. Prevailing Eastern Time on January 25, 2013 (the "Response Deadline").

Your response, if any, must contain at a minimum the following: (i) a caption setting forth the name of the Bankruptcy Court, the name of the Debtor, the case number and the title of the Objection to which the response is directed; (ii) the name of the claimant and description of the basis for the amount of the claim; (iii) a concise statement setting forth the reasons why the claim should not be disallowed, expunged, reduced, or reclassified for the reasons set forth in the Objection, including, but not limited to, the specific factual and legal bases upon which you will rely in opposing the Objection; (iv) all documentation or other evidence of the claim, to the extent not included with the proof of claim previously filed with the Bankruptcy Court, upon which you will rely in opposing the Objection; (v) the address(es) to which the Trustee must return any reply to your response, if different from that presented in the proof of claim; and (vi) the name, address, and telephone number of the person (which may be you or your legal representative) possessing ultimate authority to reconcile, settle, or otherwise resolve the claim on your behalf.

The Bankruptcy Court will consider a response only if the response is timely filed, served, and received. A response will be deemed timely filed, served, and received only if the original response is actually received on or before the Response Deadline by (i) the chambers of the Honorable James M. Peck, One Bowling Green, New York, New York 10004, Courtroom 601; (ii) Hughes Hubbard & Reed LLP, One Battery Park Plaza, New York, New York, 10004, Attn: Meaghan C. Gragg, Esq. and Stuart Mitchell, Esq.

A hearing will be held on February 13, 2013 to consider the Objection. The hearing will be held at 10:00 a.m. Prevailing Eastern Time in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York, One Bowling Green, New York, New York 10004, Courtroom 601. If you file a written response to the Objection, you should plan to appear at the hearing. The Trustee reserves the right, however, to continue the hearing on the Objection with respect to your claim(s). If the Trustee does continue the hearing with respect to your claim(s), then the hearing will be held at a later date. If the Trustee does not continue the hearing with respect to your claim(s), then a hearing on the Objection will be conducted on the above date.

If the Bankruptcy Court does NOT disallow, expunge, reduce or reclassify your claim(s) listed above under CLAIM(S) TO BE DISALLOWED & EXPUNGED, then the Trustee has the right to object on other grounds to the claim(s) (or to any other claims you may have filed) at a later date. You will receive a separate notice of any such objections.

You may participate in a hearing telephonically provided that you comply with the Court's instructions (including, without limitation, providing prior written notice to counsel for the Trustee and any statutory committees), which can be found on the Court's website at www.nysb.uscourts.gov.

If you wish to view the complete Objection, you can do so on the Court's electronic docket for LBI's case, which is posted on the internet (i) at www.nysb.uscourts.gov (a PACER login and password are required and can be obtained through the PACER Service Center at www.pacer.psc.uscourts.gov), and (ii) for free at www.lehmantrustee.com, the Trustee's dedicated website. Dear Zarko:

This is an agreement and release concerning your separation from employment by Lehman Brothers. If you sign and comply with this agreement, you will receive the payments and benefits discussed below.

Effective Dates, Payments and Benefits

1. Today will be the last day that you are expected to report to work.
2. Provided you sign and comply with this agreement, you are eligible to continue to receive your current base salary and benefits coverage through the earlier of March 14, 2009 or the date on which you become actively employed with another firm (the "separation date"), as follows.
 - a. You will continue to receive your current base salary and benefits continuation through November 8, 2008 (the "notice period").
 - b. Immediately after the notice period and in lieu of a lump sum separation payment consisting of 16 weeks of severance pay and two weeks of unused vacation pay, you will continue to receive your current base salary and certain benefits continuation, including medical benefits, through March 14, 2009.

Salary continuation will be paid on a biweekly basis at your current biweekly base salary rate, in accordance with the Firm's regular payroll practices. While you are on salary continuation, you will be eligible to continue your benefits coverage under the terms of our plans. All payments will be subject to withholding, payroll taxes and other applicable deductions.

3. Lehman Brothers has retained Lee Hecht Harrison to provide you with outplacement counseling services. These services are designed to assist you with counseling on resume writing, interviewing skills, networking techniques, and a job search campaign. We encourage you to take advantage of these services in order to ensure a smooth career transition. To sign up, please call Sasha Hohri at (866) 949-3325.
4. You and your covered dependents, pursuant to the COBRA law, may be eligible to continue health insurance coverage for up to 18 months from your separation date, at your own expense. Your right to continue or convert coverage (including COBRA coverage) after your separation date will be governed by the terms of our plans.
5. Your rights to benefits under any employee benefits plans will be determined in accordance with the terms of such plans. Our employee benefits plans may be modified or terminated at any time.
6. Should you become employed by another firm as an employee, consultant or independent contractor at any time while you are on salary continuation, you are obligated to inform the Firm so that you can be terminated from the Firm's payroll at that time. This date will be your separation date for purposes of this agreement. As of this separation date, your salary and benefits coverage continuation will end. Provided you have signed and complied with this agreement, you will receive a lump sum payment representing the remainder of the payments described in paragraph 2, payable within 4 weeks of your separation date.

7. Should you be rehired by Lehman or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates as an employee, consultant or independent contractor at any time through your separation date you will no longer be eligible to receive the remainder of the payments described in paragraph 2.
8. As you are aware, for certain of your outstanding and unvested restricted stock unit awards ('RSUs') granted to you in connection with the Lehman Brothers Equity Award Program, you are expressly required to execute a release agreement as a condition of 'involuntary termination without cause' treatment under those awards. If you sign and comply with this separation agreement, you will satisfy the release requirement applicable to such awards.

Complete Release

You agree to forever release Lehman Brothers Inc., any of its affiliated companies, past and present parents, subsidiaries, divisions and present and former employees, officers, directors, successors and assigns from all claims you may now have based on your employment with any Lehman affiliate or the separation of that employment, to the maximum extent permitted by law. This includes a release, to the maximum extent permitted by law, of any rights or claims you may have under: the Age Discrimination Employment Act, which generally prohibits age discrimination in employment; Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, which generally prohibits discrimination in employment based on race, color, national origin, religion or sex; the Equal Pay Act, which generally prohibits paying men and women unequal pay for equal work; the Americans with Disabilities Act, which generally prohibits discrimination on the basis of disability; the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, which governs the provision of pension and welfare benefits; the Conscientious Employee Protection Act, which generally prohibits retaliation due to an employee's whistle blowing-related activities; and all other federal, state or local laws prohibiting employment discrimination. This also includes a release by you of any claims for wrongful discharge, any compensation claims, or any other claims under any statute, rule, regulation, or under the common law. This release covers both claims that you know about and those you may not know about.

Non-disclosure Provisions

You agree not to disclose to anyone except your immediate family, accountant, and lawyer any information relating to the subject matter or existence of this agreement, including the dollar amount set forth, except to the extent required by legal process. Any disclosure to your immediate family, accountant or lawyer shall be made only upon their agreement not to disclose these terms to another person. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties may disclose to any and all persons, without limitation of any kind, the tax treatment and tax structure of the transaction and all materials of any kind (including opinions or other tax analyses) that are provided to either party relating to such tax treatment.

Firm Property; Confidential Information

You agree that all proprietary or confidential information concerning Lehman, its business or customers which you learned, received, or developed while an employee of Lehman is and shall remain the exclusive property of Lehman. You agree that you will not, without Lehman's express written consent, (1) disclose any of Lehman's confidential or proprietary information to any entities or individuals outside of Lehman, including to any competitors, the media, or other third parties, or (2) use such information for your own personal benefit or for the benefit of any individual or entity other than Lehman. You further agree to return to Lehman any and all Lehman property that you possess, including Lehman confidential or proprietary information, within one week after your last day of active employment.

Registration

If you are currently registered with Lehman, your registration will cease as of your last day of active employment. Once you join another firm, you should immediately contact the new firm's Registration Department to transfer your registrations, as the transfer does not occur automatically. Your new firm should have you complete a new U-4 form.

Disparaging Remarks

You agree not to make any remarks now or at any time in the future to any third party, including to a client, a competitor, or the media, that could be detrimental in any way to Lehman or to individual directors or employees of Lehman. This does not restrict your ability to respond to any inquiry that you may receive from applicable regulatory authorities or to disclose information pursuant to subpoena or legal process.

Future Cooperation

You agree to reasonably cooperate with Lehman, its financial and legal advisors and/or government officials in connection with any business matters in which you were involved or any claims, investigations, administrative proceedings or lawsuits which relate to your Lehman employment. Related travel and accommodation expenses will be reimbursed in accordance with Lehman's standard policies.

Arbitration

Any controversy arising out of or relating to this agreement shall be submitted to arbitration pursuant to the constitution and rules of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA).

Consultation with Attorney

You have been advised to consult with an attorney concerning this agreement and acknowledge that you have had ample opportunity to do so before signing.

Separation Booklet

You acknowledge that you have received and reviewed a copy of the Firm's booklet, "Guide to Leaving Lehman Brothers."

Employment Inquiries

It is the Firm's policy to provide only limited information to non-Lehman individuals or organizations. Verify Job System, the vendor retained to provide this information, will disclose dates of employment and your last job title. Requestors can access the verification system online at www.vjsus.com or by calling 800-800-4857. Requestors will need your Social Security number in order to verify your employment information for a nominal fee. This shall not restrict Lehman's ability to provide complete information with respect to your employment when expected to do so under applicable regulatory requirements.

Entire Agreement

This agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and cannot be altered except in writing signed by both parties. The terms of this agreement supersede any other oral or written arrangement between you and the Firm with respect to your employment or the separation of your employment by the Firm including but not limited to any entitlements you may have under the Firm's severance policy. Both parties acknowledge that no representations were made to induce execution of this agreement, which are not expressly contained in this agreement.

Successorship; Controlling Law

This agreement will be binding on Lehman and its successors and assigns and will also be binding on you, your heirs, administrators, executors and assigns. This agreement will be construed under the substantive law of the State of New Jersey, without regard to conflict of law principles.

LEHMAN BROTHERS HOLDINGS INC.

September 30, 2008

Dear Mr. Cvetanovic:

We are disappointed to inform you that as a result of the bankruptcy of Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc. and the placement of Lehman Brothers Inc. into a liquidation proceeding under the Securities Investor Protection Act (SIPA), Lehman Brothers is unfortunately no longer able to provide the salary continuation or other payments described in your separation agreement. As a result, you will not receive a payment on October 3, 2008 or thereafter.

You may continue to be covered under any current medical, dental and/or vision benefits through the end of your original salary continuation date as set out in your separation agreement. Because you will no longer receive salary continuation payments from which your employee contributions for these benefits can be deducted, you will be billed monthly for these costs. An invoice will be mailed to your home with instructions on how and when to return your payment. Your current coverage is in effect and will remain in place subject to timely payment of your contributions.

The cost to you for medical, dental and/or vision coverage will remain the same through December 2008 but may increase in the future. As of your termination date, you may be eligible to continue these benefits for up to 18 months under COBRA.

For other voluntary benefits you may be covered under, you will receive a mailing directly from the insurance carrier to continue your coverage on a direct bill basis (for example, MetLife Auto & Home, Mass Mutual Group Variable Universal Life Insurance, Hyatt Legal).

As a matter of federal law, the assets of the Lehman Brothers Savings Plan (401(k) plan) and Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc. Retirement Plan (pension plan) are protected from the claims of Lehman Brothers' creditors. Information about these entitlements is available through Fidelity NetBenefits at www.netbenefits.fidelity.com or by calling 1-866-534-6266.

If you are owed additional severance payments that cannot be paid at this time as a result of the various Lehman bankruptcy proceedings, you will have claims for these amounts that can be filed as part of the bankruptcy process. At some point in the future, you will be receiving notification of the procedures for the filing of claims and the date by which the claims must be filed. A deadline for filing claims has not yet been set.

Also, if you have not yet done so, you may wish to apply for unemployment insurance benefits in your state. Information about applying for unemployment benefits is enclosed.

We recognize that this is difficult news and that you may have questions about this situation. Please call the Lehman Brothers HR Service Center at 212.526.2363. They can answer your questions or direct your call to someone who can.

Very truly yours,

LEHMAN BROTHERS HOLDINGS INC.

Creditor's Name and Address:

Fill in the name of the person or entity asserting a claim and the name and address of the person who should receive notices issued during the bankruptcy case. DEFINITIONS

INFORMATION

Debtor

A debtor is the person, corporation, or other entity that has filed a bankruptcy case.

Creditor

A creditor is the person, corporation, or other entity owed a debt by the debtor on the date of the bankruptcy filing.

Claim

A claim is the creditor's right to receive payment on a debt that was owed by the debtor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. See 11 U.S.C. §101 (5). A claim may be secured or unsecured.

Proof of Claim

A proof of claim is a form used by the creditor to indicate the amount of the debt owed by the debtor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. The creditor must file the form with the clerk of the same bankruptcy court in which the bankruptcy case was filed.

Secured Claim Under 11 U.S.C. §506(a)

A secured claim is one backed by a lien on property of the debtor. The claim is secured so long as the creditor has the right to be paid from the property prior to other creditors. The amount of the secured claim cannot exceed the value of the property. Any amount owed to the creditor in excess of the value of the property is an unsecured claim. Examples of liens on property include a mortgage on real estate or a security interest in a car.

A lien may be voluntarily granted by a debtor or may be obtained through a court proceeding. In some states, a court judgment is a lien. A claim also may be secured if the creditor owes the debtor money (has a right to setoff).

Unsecured Claim

An unsecured claim is one that does not meet the requirements of a secured claim. A claim may be partly unsecured if the amount of the claim exceeds the value of the property on which the creditor has a lien.

Claim Entitled to Priority Under 11 U.S.C. §507(a)

Priority claims are certain categories of unsecured claims that are paid from the available money or property in a bankruptcy case before other unsecured claims.

Redacted

A document has been redacted when the person filing it has masked, edited out, or otherwise deleted, certain information. A creditor should redact and use only the last four digits of any social-security, individual's tax-identification, or financial-account number, all but the initials of a minor's name and only the year of any person's date of birth.

Evidence of Perfection

Evidence of perfection may include a mortgage, lien, certificate of title, financing statement, or other document showing that the lien has been filed or recorded.

Acknowledgment of Filing of Claim

To receive acknowledgment of your filing, you may either enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope and a copy of this proof of claim or you may access the court's PACER system (www.pacer.psc.uscourts.gov) for a small fee to view your filed proof of claim.

Offers to Purchase a Claim

Certain entities are in the business of purchasing claims for an amount less than the face value of the claims. One or more of these entities may contact the creditor and offer to purchase the claim. Some of the written communications from these entities may easily be confused with official court documentation or communications from the debtor. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court or the debtor. The creditor has no obligation to sell its claim. However, if the creditor decides to sell its claim, any transfer of such claim is subject to FRBP 3001(e), any applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.), and any applicable orders of the bankruptcy court.

DEFINITIONSDebtor

A debtor is the person, corporation, or other entity that has filed a bankruptcy case.

Creditor

A creditor is the person, corporation, or other entity owed a debt by the debtor on the date of the bankruptcy filing.

Claim

A claim is the creditor's right to receive payment on a debt that was owed by the debtor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. See 11 U.S.C. §101 (5). A claim may be secured or unsecured.

Proof of Claim

A proof of claim is a form used by the creditor to indicate the amount of the debt owed by the debtor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. The creditor must file the form with the clerk of the same bankruptcy court in which the bankruptcy case was filed.

Secured Claim Under 11 U.S.C. §506(a)

A secured claim is one backed by a lien on property of the debtor. The claim is secured so long as the creditor has the right to be paid from the property prior to other creditors. The amount of the secured claim cannot exceed the value of the property. Any amount owed to the creditor in excess of the value of the property is an unsecured claim. Examples of liens on property include a mortgage on real estate or a security interest in a car.

A lien may be voluntarily granted by a debtor or may be obtained through a court proceeding. In some states, a court judgment is a lien. A claim also may be secured if the creditor owes the debtor money (has a right to setoff).

Unsecured Claim

An unsecured claim is one that does not meet the requirements of a secured claim. A claim may be partly unsecured if the amount of the claim exceeds the value of the property on which the creditor has a lien.

Claim Entitled to Priority Under 11 U.S.C. §507(a)

Priority claims are certain categories of unsecured claims that are paid from the available money or property in a bankruptcy case before other unsecured claims.

Redacted

A document has been redacted when the person filing it has masked, edited out, or otherwise deleted, certain information. A creditor should redact and use only the last four digits of any social-security, individual's tax-identification, or financial-account number, all but the initials of a minor's name and only the year of any person's date of birth.

Evidence of Perfection

Evidence of perfection may include a mortgage, lien, certificate of title, financing statement, or other document showing that the lien has been filed or recorded.

INFORMATIONAcknowledgment of Filing of Claim

To receive acknowledgment of your filing, you may either enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope and a copy of this proof of claim or you may access the court's PACER system (www.pacer.psc.uscourts.gov) for a small fee to view your filed proof of claim.

Offers to Purchase a Claim

Certain entities are in the business of purchasing claims for an amount less than the face value of the claims. One or more of these entities may contact the creditor and offer to purchase the claim. Some of the written communications from these entities may easily be confused with official court documentation or communications from the debtor. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court or the debtor. The creditor has no obligation to sell its claim. However, if the creditor decides to sell its claim, any transfer of such claim is subject to FRBP 3001(e), any applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.), and any applicable orders of the bankruptcy court.
